REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Hinden et al. (U.S. Patent 4,861,631) disclose a sleeve for joining and sealing conduits comprising a sleeve core having an inner surface and an outer surface, a sheet bonded to the outer surface wherein portions of the sheet extend beyond the sleeve core, a sheet bonded to the inner surface wherein portions of the sheet extend beyond the sleeve core, and a clamp on each side of the sleeve core for holding the extending portions of the sheets together. Hinden (U.S. Patent 4,183,557) discloses similar to that shown by Hinden et al. wherein the sheets comprise cured elastomer fabric. However, while Hinden and Hinden et al. disclose a similar product to that produced by the claimed method, the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest the particular claimed method for forming the product.

Art Unit: 1733

In summary, the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest fabricating a sleeve for joining and sealing conduits through a method comprising providing a (preformed) sleeve core having an inner surface and an outer surface, positioning an uncured elastomer-coated fabric on the inner surface of the sleeve core wherein portions of the fabric extend beyond the sleeve core, positioning an uncured elastomer-coated fabric on the outer surface of the sleeve core wherein portions of the fabric extend beyond the sleeve core, placing a porous material between the extending fabric portions, curing the elastomer-coated fabric to bond the fabric to the sleeve core, removing the porous material, and bonding the extending fabric portions together.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
